

Haskell County Singing Convention Expects Overflow Crowd for Sunday

Plans were completed this week for the 25th Haskell County Singing Convention to be held at Haskell Sunday, according to an announcement by Hallie E. Chapman president of the organization for the past 12 years.

Capacity crowds are expected this year due to the quality of the program that will attract some of the outstanding quartets and musical organizations of the area. Included are: Stamps - Baxter Quartet of Dallas, S. E. Clark Quartet of Abilene, Tankersly Quartet of O'Brien, Throckmorton and the Oddfellows Quartet of Haskell.

Convention will be held in the auditorium of the First Christian Church where special arrangements have been made for the large crowds expected.

Program is to begin at 10:00 a. m. and will continue throughout the afternoon. A loud speaker system is to be in use and will be aired over KDWT, Stamford in the afternoon.

Special concert featuring the Stamps-Baxter Quartet will be held Saturday evening in the church auditorium it was announced.

Country Club Lags In Membership

Press of business following the recent rains in this area has led to a let-down in member solicitation in the campaign of the Lakeview Country Club.

A report Wednesday on progress of the drive revealed that 80 members had been enrolled locally. A great number of prospective members had still not been solicited.

A prospectus of the club plan has been presented to members of the golf club at Rotan and there is a possibility that the Rotan club will be abandoned in favor of participation in the Hamlin organization.

Preparation of sketches of the new clubhouse planned has been delayed and will probably be completed late this week. At that time a visual plan will be ready for presentation to the people.

Mrs. Mary Lenard received word that her son, W. J. Cardell, passed away last Tuesday in a Tucson, Arizona hospital.

Game will be at the Hamlin City Ball Park between the Conoco Seismograph and Aspermont Seismograph.

No admission will be charged.

Atlantic Crews To Locate in Hamlin

Intensive efforts are being made by the Chamber of Commerce to obtain living quarters for Atlantic Refining Company personnel who are seeking to move to Hamlin.

A major core drilling program in the vicinity of the Y-6 Ranch and other properties in the area will possibly bring twelve families to the town.

Failure to find suitable quarters for the core drilling crew members led to an attempt to establish headquarters at Stamford. This arrangement was found to be impractical and it has been decided that the company would make another effort to locate here.

The chamber of commerce has asked that property owners list any available accommodations at once.

Bingham Well Still Flows Despite Low Gas Pressure

The J. P. Bingham wildcat, nine miles south of Hamlin continues to flow at the rate of about six barrels of oil per hour.

Shortly after completion the well died and had to be kicked off to resume production.

Casing pressure of 400 pounds and tubing pressure at 100 makes this well difficult to flow and it is believed that pumping equipment will eventually have to be installed.

Rotary Hears Of Delegates' Views After Convention

Hamlin Rotray Club members heard reports from delegates to the district meet at Brownwood in their Wednesday session.

Delegates had arranged to meet individually with different luncheon groups and reported on the activities of these groups.

Those making reports were C. G. Green, Bowen Pope, Gene Witt, Pat Marlow and W. A. Allbritton.

Visitors to the club were O. V. Farnsworth, Safeway Stores, of Abilene, John Hearne, cottonseed man from Abilene, C. L. Howard, Howard City Drug and Bennie Rentzel, vice president of the Houston National Bank.

Following the Hardin-Simmons campus festivities the group will be guests of the F. & M. National bank at the rodeo being held at Carl Myers memorial stadium.

Redus 5-A Completed From Canyon Reef

The H. E. Redus Number 5-A has been completed as a producer from the Canyon reef at 4862 feet.

Production is from a very thin pay and the well is flowing at the rate of approximately 100-barrels per day.

This was one of the problem wells of the area and doubt was expressed from many sources that it would be a commercial well.

Pipers Contest Anson Here Today

Hamlin's Pied Pipers will meet Anson in a baseball game at the local park Friday afternoon at 3:30 p. m.

Withdrawal of Throckmorton from competition in baseball for the remainder of the season has left the eastern half of District 6-A with only Anson and Hamlin contesting.

An 8-0 victory registered by the local nine over the Anson team early last week leaves the possibility of Hamlin wrapping up the championship of their half of the district Friday.

Should Anson be the victor, a playoff game will be necessary. After eastern half champion is decided it will be necessary that that team await outcome of the four-way play in the western half before a district winner can be determined.

Whaley Location Is Made Near Culbertson

Sohio Oil Company has made location for a 5300 test on the J. G. Whaley properties in Section 65 of the S. P. Railroad survey.

Location was made approximately two miles east of the Joe Culbertson Number Three well which is being completed in the Canyon sand.

Cardinals Engage In O'Brien Return Game

The squad of the Hamlin Cardinals, local baseball team, left on Thursday evening for O'Brien for a return engagement in that town after the game of Monday night here.

A stronger representation is expected to be ready for the game of Thursday. Adair was scheduled to pitch for the locals.

ON FISHING TRIP

Stanley Carmichael, Jim Howard King, Harry Carmichael, B.O. Bell, O. R. Riddell, Wilson Brandon and James Owens made a week-end fishing trip to Possum Kingdom.

High winds interfered with fishing conditions and results were not to favorable from the trip.

Canyon Sand Fails To Pay Off After Show

Round Top Oil Company's J. B. Terrell Number 4 was tested for the Canyon sand from 4720 to 4738 feet Monday.

The well showed indications of being a producer from this pay, having odor, color and fluorescence, but test brought gas to the surface in 13 minutes with no oil.

Test was merely for information on the sand and hole will be completed as planned in the Canyon Reef, which is certain of production.

Close-In Well Now Nearing Reality

Rumors are circulating among oil men that a test well is to be dug in the northeast corner of the Jess Young property south-east of Hamlin.

Information gained by The Herald is that the well is to be drilled as a joint test by The Texas Company, Skelly Oil Company and Texas & Pacific Coal and Oil with the 4-W Drilling Co. as contractors.

It is reported that this well is to be an Ellenburger test.

MAGIC CARRY-ALL COAT

The coat worn by this young lady is as amazing as a magician's cloak. Designed by a U. S. Department of Agriculture clothing specialist from waterproof and wrinkle resistant cotton, the coat is heaven-sent for the feminine shopper. It has hidden pockets in the sleeves, skirt, and top for bus tokens, shopping lists, pencils, wallets, and other items needed by a shopper. The carry-all bag to accompany the cotton coat holds the largest size grocery bag and has a waterproof cover for rainy days.

SHOES!

Mrs. L. S. McGee this week requested that The Herald try to help her find some shoes and other needed articles for the needy.

She is asking that those who have clothing and shoes they don't want to please leave same on her porch at 13 North Central Avenue and she will distribute them.

Report Tardy On Joe Culbertson No. 3 Well

Definite reports were still pending Thursday night as to the status of the Joe Culbertson Number 3 oil well.

Production test was made early Thursday morning and the well refused to flow from the Canyon sand in which pipe was set.

Either shooting or treating was to be attempted to agitate flow of the well and information reaching The Herald was that another test was to be made at 3:00 p. m.

Most men familiar with oil production in this area expressed little doubt that the well would be a commercial producer but rate of flow is not available.

The well is about five miles east of Hamlin and a fine section of Canyon sand was encountered at approximately 5053 feet.

Bricks To Match Delay Hospital

Delay in construction on the 20-bed addition to the Hamlin Memorial Hospital has been occasioned by tardy arrival of the particular color of brick that will match that used in the original structure.

It is the estimate of Contractor Bob Tagart and Wesley Nail, business manager of the hospital, that the additional wing to the hospital will be ready for occupancy about July 1.

Estimated cost of the construction is $36,000.00.

Completion of the wing will more than double the bed capacity of the hospital and will permit expansion of the clinic. Present capacity is fifteen beds without the use of hallway ends, which has been a general practice for many months.

Strawn Try Coming On J. A. Young Farm

Stevens Producing Company has made location for a J. A. Young test eight and one-half miles southwest of Hamlin.

The well is to be drilled to a depth of 5200 feet and is expected to produce from the Strawn.

Hamlin Men Charged In Oil Tool Theft

Haden Prophet and J. E. Williams, Hamlin oil field workers, have been lodged in the Fisher County jail to await action of a grand jury following the alleged theft of oil field equipment from Moutray-Moore Drilling Company.

It is charged that the pair went to the well location of the Moutray-Moore company to seek employment for one and a drilling bit was missing following their departure. The missing oil tool was found in a ditch alongside the road by a company employee.

The men were arrested early Friday morning by Chief J. H. Foster at the request of the Fisher county sheriff.

Cardinals Take First Home Game

A small crowd weathered sands and wind to witness what developed into an excellent ball game Monday night at the Hamlin park.

Uncertainty about lighting arrangements and resultant possibility that the game might be cancelled made proper publicity impossible but word of mouth advertising brought out the faithful.

O'Brien was slow in arriving and an agreement was reached that the ball game would be limited to seven innings.

Glenn Adair for Hamlin and Claybrook for O'Brien tangled in a tight pitching duel that produced some sparkling baseball despite the wind and dust. Several of Hamlin's stalwarts were unable to play and substitutes hurriedly recruited performed admirably in the pinch. O'Brien was able to field only eight men and Leroy of Hamlin was drafted from the stands to perform in right field. It was this same Leroy who got the first hit off Adair and tallied the first run for the visitors.

Adair showed a fine curve ball in addition to the fast ball for which he has been noted in the past and figured vitally in the scoring with two solidly tagged bingles that figured vitally in the scoring. On his third trip to the plate he tagged another that might well have gone for extra bases had not the O'Brien left fielder been perfectly placed to take the drive.

Jesse Burditt, Hamlin high school coach, kept the banners of Aggeland unsullied by a thrilling theft of home in the sixth inning to provide Hamlin with the run needed for victory after a 4-4 tie as a result of a O'Brien rally in the fifth.

Adair slammed the door with two strikeouts in the visitors' half of the seventh.

Lettie Fawcett Tells Hamlin Lions of Perils Encountered as Life Celebrant

Hamlin Lions were ably entertained in Tuesday session by a descriptive talk from Mrs. Lettie Fawcett, society editor of the Abilene Reporter-News.

Mrs. Fawcett was the subject of a feature prepared for Life Magazine regarding the life of a small city newspaper woman and was selected for the honor after a competitive examination of the work of similar women over the southwest.

Her account of the trials attendant to having photographers at her back throughout a seven-day period, day and night, were entertaining and at times hilarious.

Reading of subsequent correspondence to the publication of the article brought out the humor for which she has established a reputation in her work.

Description of the newspaper woman's fight against the errors which are a nightmare to the publishing business brought merriment to her audience and clearly demonstrated why she has been in such demand at similar functions of the region.

Visitors to the luncheon were C. L. Howard, former Quanah member now operating the Haward City Drug and Herman Treadwell, former Hamlin club member now of Abilene.

Nominations were written by club members from which a slate of new officers will be elected at an approaching meeting.

Officer Apprehends Negroes Accused In Stamford Burglary

Prompt action on the part of Police Chief J. H. Foster led to the arrest of Morris L. Smith and Robert Wright, Abilene negroes, charged with the burglary of a Stamford shoe shop Monday.

Information to Foster revealed that the men had been transported to Hamlin from Stamford Monday night and they were apprehended early Tuesday morning as they were preparing to board a bus for Abilene.

The men are alleged to have taken about $100.00 in cash from the Stamford store and are lodged in the Anson county jail pending further action against them.

It was rumored here Thursday that they had confessed to the crime.

Additional storage facilities are to be installed after preliminary move is made.

THE SAME OLD STORY

The drive to socialize the electric power industry in this country moves on. Proposals which have been presented to the current Congress during the brief period it has been in session show the way the wind blows. Heavy appropriations are asked for the Rural Electrification Administration, the Reclamation Bureau, and other agencies which are engaged in one fashion or another in the campaign to undermine and destroy free enterprise. The Tennessee Valley Authority is demanding authorization to start construction of a steam power plant—despite the fact that it can have no connection whatsoever with flood control and other non-commercial purposes for which TVA was theoretically created. The proposed Columbia Valley Authority would establish a federal power monopoly in that region—at a colossal expense to the taxpayers everywhere.

Early in March a group of senators introduced a bill to create a Missouri Valley Authority. It was backed by the stale argument to the effect that only an all-powerful federal agency could control floods and put the river to work "for the benefit of all the people." That appealing generality, it should be remembered, has been used to advance every scheme for the socialization of industry in this country.

Why should so much effort be given to effecting government ownership and political control of power facilities? The reason is simple—as David Lilienthal once put it, "Whoever controls energy controls people." A government with a monopoly of the nation's electricity would hold the whip hand over industry and agriculture and regional development. Being free from state regulation and local control and taxation it could dictate as it pleased. That is the way socialized economics are created in other parts of the world.

The New 1950—
REMINGTON
THE HERALD

It even PROTECTS YOUR POCKETBOOK!

RAP your fist against these stout bars—feel the gauge of the bumper stock they're made of—and you know you've got stout protection here.

But then figure:

Here are nine bumper guards (not counting the two that hold the parking lights) so that's one extra item you needn't buy.

And each is individually replaceable—if damage should occur you have only a simple part or two to replace, instead of a complete, cast-metal grille.

Thus this stunning new design—freshest front-end style note on the highways—protects your pocketbook as well as your car.

Avoids costly repair bills as it avoids "locking horns" with the car ahead. Cuts upkeep as it cuts inches from the car's total length, thus making parking and garaging easier.

What you really have here is a four-way forefront. A design that sets the coming style note—avoids many a tangle with the car ahead—makes handling easier—and costs less to repair.

And note that parking-light lenses, made of plastic and set deep in recessed sockets, are well out of harm's way—even when pushing a stalled car.

You'll find this bold front end only on Buick—as you'll find Fireball power, Dynaflow Drive,* Buick's wonderful ride, and many another headline value only on these beauties.

Why not see your dealer now for the whole story—including the happy story on prices to fit practically any budget?

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

INVITATION—AND A CHALLENGE

"You never can tell till you try"—so we want you to try the 1950 Buick. And we especially want you to compare it with others. Drive any other car—then drive Buick and see what your money should buy in ride, room, handling and power.

Only Buick has Dynaflow—and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines (New F-263 engine in SUPER models) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD fender, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-MANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

County Agent Asks Seasonal Warnings Care in Poison Use Issued By State

Indications are that we will have another bumper crop of grasshoppers this year unless farmers begin control now, says a report to The Herald from Bill Lehmborg, county agent of Jones County. Now is the time to control them while they are young.

With reduced acreage of crops, we cannot afford to feed the hoppers on our wheat, milo and cotton.

The new insecticides used include chlordane and toxaphene. They give a quick kill and continue to kill longer than standard bran bait. They are most effective when used on weeds along roadsides, fence rows, ditch banks, pasture lands and creek beds, where young hoppers hatch.

Dosage to use: Chlordane and toxaphene may be used either as a spray or dust. Sprays in general are more effective than dusts and kill for a longer time. When applying sprays use one pound of technical chlordane or one and one-half pounds technical toxaphene per acre. To spray one acre 50 to 100 gallons of spray will be needed. Use the following dilutions.

Chlordane—One quart 45 per cent emulsion or two pounds 50 per cent wettable powder per 50 to 100 gallons of water to one acre.

Toxaphene—Use one quart 55 per cent emulsion or two and one-half pounds 40 per cent wettable powder per 50 to 100 gallons of water per acre.

When using dusts apply one and one-half pounds of either technical toxaphene or chlordane per acre when grasshoppers are small. As hoppers grow larger the dosage must be increased for either toxaphene or chlordane.

When hoppers are small use 15 pounds per acre of either 10 per cent toxaphene or chlordane dust. When hoppers are larger, increase dose to 18 or 20 pounds per acre or 10 or 20 per cent toxaphene per acre.

Precaution—Do not feed forage treated with these new insecticides to dairy cattle or animals being finished to slaughter. The same applies to treated pastures. At dosages recommended there is apparently no immediate danger to animals being fed or pastured, but these insecticides may be accumulated in the fatty tissues of the animal and are given off in the milk and butterfat.

The symbol of rugged strength is the oak tree.

John T. Kee, owner of the Hamlin Automotive, was called to Hugo, Oklahoma, where Mrs. Kee underwent surgery.

same rays which burn the skin and extensive application of direct sunshine to the skin may produce painful and severe burns which actually may endanger life.

In conclusion the state health officer advises those who wish to obtain an extensive suntan to get it by slow degrees. Expose small portions of the skin to the sun for a short period of time. When tanning is established, exposing a greater area for a longer period of time should prove safe and comfortable.

County Clerk Has Many Licenses He Would Like to Deliver, Asks Help

H. O. Rowland Jr., Jones County Clerk this week sent The Herald a list of marriage licenses that have been issued by the office, returned, duly recorded and not returned to the contracting parties. Rowland says, "These licenses have accumulated through the years and for various reasons were not returned and are being held by this office. In most cases, the licenses were mailed and were returned by the postal department mostly for reason of "unclaimed."

"Feeling sure that many of the couples involved would like to have their original license and I would like to mail the same to them if their addresses were available I list them herewith."

In conclusion Rowland says if the persons will request these and give the date of issuing he will be helped.

The entire list follows:

Suit the Bread to the Filling

SANDWICH TIME is almost any time at all. But they're never more popular than in spring and summer when you'll rely on them for auto trips, picnics, beach parties and outdoor teas. Shown above is an appetizing set-up from Good Housekeeping magazine which presents a complete 32-page "Sandwich Manual" in its May issue. From dainty monthlies for the ladies to hefty triple-deckers for the men, there's an ideal sandwich for every occasion. Suit the bread to the fillings as shown in the picture—outbread for cream cheese, enriched white for chicken, wheat or rye for ham or beef. Make your mixed fillings in generous portions, but don't forget the Bakers of America reminder that "bread is two-thirds of the sandwich." So the right bread is just as important as the filling.

Feather-bedding scheme of Firemen's Union to put an additional fireman on diesel locomotives has been CONSIDERED TWICE!

Fact Finding Boards appointed by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman have said these demands were "devoid of merit" and they were REJECTED TWICE!

Now the Firemen's leaders seek to paralyze railroad transportation to compel the railroads to employ a wholly unnecessary additional fireman to ride on diesel locomotives. This scheme is plain

FEATHER-BEDDING!

LEADERS of the Firemen's union have called a nationwide strike starting with four great railroads on April 26. These railroads are the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, and Southern.

The union claim that a second fireman is needed on grounds of safety is sheer hypocrisy. Safety has been dragged into this dispute only in an unsuccessful effort to give a cloak of respectability to vicious feather-bedding demands.

After a careful study of the first demands of this union, a Presidential Fact Finding Board on May 21, 1943, reported to President Roosevelt that there was no need for an extra fireman on diesel locomotives.

Again, on September 19, 1949, after a second hearing on the union leaders' demands, a second Board reported to President Truman that: "there presently exists no need for an additional fireman... upon either the ground of safety or that of efficiency and economy of operation."

Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good

Although the railroads accepted the Board findings, the union leaders have brazenly rejected them. They represent that an extra fireman is needed for "safety" reasons. Here's what the Board had to say on that point:

"The safety and on-time performance of diesel electric locomotives operated under current rules have been notably good..."

"Upon careful analysis of the data submitted on safety, we have concluded that no valid reasons have been shown as a support for the Brotherhood proposal under which a fireman would be required to be at all times continuously in the cab of road diesels. The proposal must be rejected."

The real reason behind these demands is that the union leaders are trying to make jobs where there is no work. In other words, a plain case of "feather-bedding." The railroads have no intention of yielding to these wasteful make-work demands.

"The Safety Record of Diesels Is Outstandingly Good..."

PRESIDENTIAL FACT FINDING BOARD REPORT
Read these excerpts from official reports of Presidential Fact Finding Boards:

"The safety record of Diesels is outstandingly good, and it follows that the safety rules now applicable have produced good results."

"The safety and on-time performance of Diesel-electric locomotives operated under current rules indicate that Diesel-electric operation has been safer than steam locomotive operation..."

Remember! These are not statements of the railroads. They are just a few of the many similar conclusions reached by President Truman's Fact Finding Board which spent months investigating the claims of the union leaders.
